Precision Hockey's Development Camps, Clinics, Consultations, and Private Lessons provide a unique and memorable experience for committed hockey players seeking to improve their individual skills. Our camps and clinics are run by Mark Metzger, Owner of Precision Hockey and Skills and Skating Coach for the Carolina Hurricanes NHL and Charlotte Checkers AHL. Our camps and clinics are also run by additional professional hockey instructors. We provide and demonstrate purposeful training sessions and proper instruction. Over 5,200 players have completed on-ice training sessions with Mark Metzger and have learned proven techniques from over 30,000 hours of player development. Our techniques empower players to be more efficient, confident, and achieve better results by overall success individually and as a team. These camps include a Precision Hockey jersey, off ice video clips with breakdown from NHL Coaches and Scouts, and player seminars from guest instructors. We will have Women's NCAA players and coaches instructing! We are also looking for goalies for this program. We will have a professional goaltender coach at each session (instructor TBA). Please inquire for details.
